„Spielen macht glücklich, gesund und schlau“...

damit bringt der Spieleforscher Jens Junge auf den Punkt, was das Hobby Spielen mit Menschen macht. Gerne leisten wir dazu auch wieder unseren Beitrag, mit einem Programm, das spielend Generationen verbindet, Menschen unterhält, die Phantasie anregt und neue Perspektiven aufzeigt.

Piatnik produziert seit fast 200 Jahren Spielfreude. Was als kleine Kartenmalerei im Kaiserreich begann, ist heute ein moderner Spieleverlag mit internationalem Renommee.

Grund zu feiern? Für uns vor allem Grund nachzulegen! Und das nachhaltig. Mit dem Einsatz von FSC-zertifizierten Materialien, einer eigenen Produktion im Herzen Europas und dadurch kurzen Lieferketten reduzieren wir konsequent unseren CO<sub>2</sub> Fußabdruck. Ein Trumpf, den wir gerne für unsere Kunden ausspielen! Denn wir sind überzeugt: Spielfreude ist krisenresistent und systemrelevant!

„Playing makes you happy, healthy and smart“...

This is how games researcher Jens Junge describes the positive attributes that the fun of playing games bestows upon the human condition. It is our pleasure to contribute to this phenomenon in the guise of our new games assortment that playfully connects generations, entertains people, stimulates imagination as well as showing up fun new approaches to gameplay.

Piatnik has been in the business of producing enjoyable games for nearly 200 years. What began as a small playing card manufacturer in the old days of the Austrian Kaiser has evolved into a modern games publisher of international repute.

Cause to celebrate? Certainly, but above all it is a reason to up our game even further! And we are determined to do this in a sustainable way. With the use of FSC certified materials, our own production in the heart of Europe and short supply chains, we are consistently reducing our carbon footprint. This is one trump card we are delighted to share with our customers! Because we are convinced that games are not only crisis resistant but also, to put it in the context of recent developments, form part of the critical infrastructure!
